

FESTIVAL OF SACRIFICE

Festival of Sacrifice

The Festival of sacrifice is celebrated on Eid Al Adha by Muslims all over the world. This is the second most important Islamic festival in the Islamic calendar after Eid Al Fitr.

Muslims around the world celebrate this event on 10th Dzulhijjah. You can do the sacrifice on the 10th Dzulhijjah, or the three days after: 11st, 12nd and 13th Dzulhijjah, called by "Tasyrik Days" so muslim celebrate the festival for more than 3 days!

The festival is to celebrate Ibrahim's (Abraham) willingness to sacrifice his son, Ishmael, because Allah told him to do so, in a dream.

At the final moment, God told him to sacrifice a lamb instead, and this act of sacrificing a sheep is copied by Muslims all over the world today on Eid.

Ibrahim was tempted by Satan not to listen to God, and Ibrahim drove Satan away by throwing pebbles at him. This is also still commemorated by Muslims during Hajj.

Festival of sacrifice or Qurban is an expression of our gratitude and one of the activities to get closer to Allah

The animals that can slaughtered on Eid Al Adha are

GOAT, SHEEP, COWS, AND CAMEL

NO	HEWAN	UMUR
1	Unta	5 Tahun memasuki tahun ke enam
2	Sapi / Kerbau	2 Tahun memasuki tahun ke tiga
3	Kambing	2 Tahun memasuki tahun ketiga
4	Domba	Satu sampai dua tahun

Hewan kurban harus sehat badannya, tidak kurus badannya, tidak cacat atau cidera (pincang, terpotong telinganya atau ekornya, atau buta)

Tempat yang paling utama untuk pelaksanaan penyembelihan adalah dekat tempat shalat Idul Adha, namun boleh juga menyembelih di rumah, mushalla atau tempat yang sudah disediakan.

Daging kurban kita bagikan dalam keadaan masih mentah atau belum dimasak kepada fakir miskin, tetangga sekitar dan kepada orang yang berkurban atau keluarganya.

Hikmah berkurban :

- Menghidupkan sunnah para Nabi terdahulu
- Mendekatkan diri kepada Allah swt
- Menghapus dosa
- Menghilangkan sifat tidak rakus dan tidak kikir
- Menghadirkan sikap dermawan
- Peduli terhadap sesama

READY TO CELEBRATE OUR SPECIAL DAY?

Let's do some fun activities!
