Al-Fatihah means "The Opening", since it's the first surah in the Quran. It's also known as As-Sab'ul Matsani, the surah that is recited in every rokaat in shalat. It was also said that it is called Ummul Quran, because it contains the meanings of the entire Qur'an. Ibn Jarir said, "The Arabs call every comprehensive matter that contains several specific areas an "Umm". For example: Makkah was called Umm Al-Qura, (the Mother of the Villages) because it is the grandest and the leader of all villages.
