Assalamualaikum wr wb..

Dear our beloved parents and teachers!

Since Ramadhan is so special, Ramadhan has it's own curriculum that gives us soo many important lessons to be discussed with children.

Also, Ramadhan provides us with so many valuable activities that can be so exciting to do!

Here we come with some learning sources that provide us with comprehensive explanations. So we can give the best experiences and knowledge about Ramadhan to our lovely children.

Hopefully, with a good explanation and activity, they will love Ramadhan better!

Note before we start:

Some of sources attached are ONLY FOR ADULT ; The Parents and Teachers.

So we can just get the explanation from the sources, and try to give our own explanation to the children based on their abilities and ages.

Make sure that we can give them the easiest explanation to understand, so they can learn better.

The best explanation sometimes comes from our interaction with children, that irreplaceable by any other media.

But if you think that your children can learn better from the real sources, so you may use it.

We attached some sources that suitable for children too.

Let's Make The Most Wonderful Ramadhan Ever!
